REPORT

Date December 6, 1937

Subject..... Communication from the Netherlands Consulate General regarding Mrs. A. Jelowicka.

Made by... D. S. Tcheremshansky ... Forwarded by

C. Crawford

Mrs. Anna Jelowicka, Polish citizen, was born in 1880 at Zytomierz, Poland. She is a divorcee. In 1925 she arrived in Shanghai from the U.S.S.R. to join her daughter who was at that time married to a wealthy American citizen named F. W. Sutterle. Following the departure of Mrs. Sutterle from Shanghai about six months ago she resided at 372 Rue Bourgeat, Apartment 28, with another daughter of hers, Mrs. Vanda K. Sak, Russian emigrant, a separated wife of an ex-officer of the Russian Imperial Army who is in Poland at present.

Mrs. A. Jelowicka is registered with the local Polish Consulate-General. Nothing detrimental is known by this office regarding this person.

REGISTRY
N. S. L. D.

Sir,

I have the honor to inform you that Mrs. Anna FLEWISIA has applied to this Consulate General for a visa for admission into the Netherlands Indies.

She is in possession of a Polish passport, issued by the Polish Consulate at Shanghai on August 7, 1934 and extended till August 9, 1936. According to this passport she is born at Bydgoszcz, Poland, in 1890.

She states that she is the wife of Mr. Jan FLEWISIA, who is currently in the Netherlands Indies. She arrived at Shanghai on board of the S.S. "Guthrie", and she is a native of the Netherlands. She is a single woman, and she is a native of the Netherlands. She is a single woman, and she is a native of the Netherlands.

As the Polish Consulate is of the opinion that Mrs. FLEWISIA has already been issued a visa for the Netherlands Indies, it was granted. The visa was issued on August 7, 1937.

I should be glad to give you more information, if possible, whether anything is known against her from a political or general point of view.

I have the honor to be,

Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Acting Consul-General.

The Deputy Commissioner,
Special & Crime Branches,
Shanghai Municipal Police,
SHANGHAI.
